BRUSHNOTES

SUMMER 2016

PRESIDENTS REPORT

With another year behind us we can all look forward to what the New Year may bring.

Our 'December Festival' was a fun night with a positive vibe.
The selection of food was outstanding with loads of delicious homemade goodies.
The Bring and Buy tables were full of all sorts of interesting items and smiles all round with bargains to be had.
Oxlades Art Supplies had a great range of products for sale and a hands-on demo of new products.
Lee from Ace Framing is a new sponsor for WJAS. He was on hand to offer advice about framing and our members had the opportunity to grab some readymade frames.
Marina Baxter from Nutrimetics is a WJAS Patron. She had a beautiful display of gifts available to buy on the night.

The raffle we held was fantastic with fifteen prizes including a Gift Voucher from Ace Framing, a Nutrimetics Gift from Marina, a Watercolour Set from Oxlades and a range of Gift Baskets full of goodies donated by WJAS Members and their families.
I'd like to extend a special thanks to Lillian Wolfinger for putting together the beautiful baskets.

The entries for the Card of the Year Art Competition were of a high standard with a variety of mediums and subjects. Choosing which one to vote for was definitely difficult. The five finalists were Celestine Dyson's Turtle, Rhonda Hickey's Kookaburra, Jenny Ellis-Newman's Pelicans, Sue McEwan's Floral Abstract and Nira Robert's Wave. The winning artwork by Sue McEwan had the most votes from the peoples choice voting and the committee votes (Rhonda and Sue were excluded from the final vote).
I'm looking forward to seeing the end result.

Thanks to the teamwork of the WJAS Committee the night ran like clockwork.

The additional Exhibitions held at Riseborough Winery and Gallery in Gingin and Mattie Furphy House in Swanbourne proved to be a good experience.
We will evaluate the benefit of exhibiting at these venues next year.

I wish you all a Merry, Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
Stay safe and I look forward to seeing you all next year.

Thanks
Kerry Reverzani
